

KEYNOTE + BUSINESS SIMULATION

Keynote + The Customer Journey Game

Get your audience actively experiencing a real customer journey

Take your audience beyond listening and get them actively experiencing a real customer experience.

This powerful combination brings together Lynn's inspirational keynote and the power of interaction with The Customer Journey Game - a business simulation that looks like a board game; but in reality, it's a reflection of your customer's journey.

Teams walk in the shoes of the customer, make the decisions organisations make every day, and see first-hand where experience breaks down between departments and handovers.

FORMATS

120 min session
Keynote plus the full Journey Game simulation.

Fees
Dedicated pricing per delegate numbers - on request.

Available worldwide
In-person delivery, facilitated by Lynn.

WHAT AUDIENCES TAKE AWAY

- What the customer journey really looks like from the customer's point of view
- How everyday micro-moments shape perception, loyalty and advocacy
- Where experience breaks down between departments and handovers
- How internal decisions create external customer friction
- The commercial cost of poor experience - and the upside of getting it right
- Practical actions every team can own the moment they leave the room

IDEAL FOR

- Conferences needing an interactive session
- CX and culture change programmes
- Leadership team offsites
- Sales, service and operations teams
- Onboarding and induction programmes
- Cross-functional teams
